Superior Court Date Set in Assault Case

A Torrance man accused of assaulting a police officer has been ordered to answer the charge in Superior Court.

William Jennings Bryan Hughes, 58, of 1318 Madrid Ave., was ordered Monday to appear in Department A of the Southwest Superior Court Feb. 20 at 9 a.m. for arraignment on the charge.

Municipal Court Judge Otto B. Willett bound Hughes over to the Superior Court Monday following a preliminary hearing in the South Bay Municipal Court. Hughes remains free on his own recognizance pending the Feb. 20 court date.

Hughes is accused of assaulting Police Officer William E. Bornhoff last Jan. 30 when Bornhoff spotted a man tampering with a neighbor's car when he arrived home from work.

Bornhoff said he went to investigate and was struck across the face with a tire iron. Hughes fled and was taken into custody after a long chase.
